Objective of the Event	To provide an orientation for the faculty members of SVU to enhance teaching-learning practices with modern instructional strategies
Report (Not more than 500 words)	The workshop was designed to enlighten teaching faculty with newer techniques of presenting information in class. With the changing generation and trends in education, individuals engaged in teaching or fostering students must up their skills. Innovative Pedagogy showcased numerous new and interactive tools/methods that are practical and in use for the classroom. Technology based methods involved Menti/Plicker/Whatsapp polls. Other tools involved mind mapping and case studies, that are currently in practice in the classroom. To add to the charm of pedagogy other tools consisted of concept mapping, conceptual check, TAPPS (Think Aloud Pair Problem Solving), Reciprocal teaching, Gamification, Jigsaw, Subject walks. The most

	appreciated tools were flipped classroom and Think Pair Share, for which participants requested more examples and details for implementation in class. The manner of conducting the workshop did not involve just presentation and the speaker; rather was hands-on, where participants were made to casually interact with each other, and then it was revealed that it was a tool of pedagogy, giving more authentic experience based understanding. The workshop also addressed concerns of current classroom teaching methods, problems faced by the teaching faculty. The speaker was able to answer each concern effectively, and give suggestions with scenarios that are realistic and countermeasures. The workshop concluded with positive feedback.
Number of beneficiaries	23
Expected Outcome	The workshop addressed concerns of current classroom teaching methods, problems faced by the teaching faculty. The speaker was able to answer each concern effectively, and give suggestions with scenarios that are realistic and countermeasures.
